

Mr. Edward "Eddie" Algerio

August 2, 1940 - January 17, 2021

Mr. Edward "Eddie" Joseph Algerio, 80, of Pittsfield, passed away on Sunday, January 17, 2021 at Berkshire Medical Center.

Born in Bronx, New York on August 2, 1940, the son of the late Cosini Algerio and Hazel Robinson, he was 1 of 5 children. He was a 1958 graduate of DeWitt Clinton All Boys High School in Bronx, New York.

Eddie spent his youth as an avid baseball player with his most cherished memory being that of playing on the grounds of the new Yankee stadium.

His employment began at Ronald Press Company, and he went on to Metropolitan Life Insurance Company selling insurance door to door until moving to Pittsfield in 1971.

He rounded out his career at ITT Continental Baking Company as a devoted Route Salesman for Wonderbread. He devoted 26 years to promptness and the neatest of shelves and retired on his birthday in 1997. Eddie was a hard worker and a Jack of all trades enjoying painting, fishing, gardening, and everything New York Yankees. You could always find him tinkering around on a household project--he had a use for the smallest of items and found value in everything. He loved tending to his hanging plant "Molly" and feeding the neighborhood birds. He lived for soaking up the sun on his back deck, drinking a coffee and doing the Sunday crossword. He was a master of the game Jeopardy and rarely missed an episode. He found great interest in collectors coins and Mecum model cars; we know he's riding along in the clouds in the driver's seat of a '64 Thunderbird. Throughout his life he enjoyed league bowling, passing along this same love to his family. Together they spent many years at the alleys.

Eddie married the love of his life, Marianne Romano Algerio, in Yonkers, New York on November 26, 1965. They happily spent 55 years taking care of one another, always eating well and hollering at each other, the Italian love language we all know and love. Together they raised 3 children, Marianne Algerio Goodfellow, and her life partner, Corey Bond, of Pittsfield, MA; Frank J. Algerio and his wife, Susan Algerio, of Pittsfield, MA; and Danielle Algerio Raimer and her husband, Tony Raimer, of Dalton, MA. He leaves behind 7 grandchildren Rebecca Goodfellow and Katherine Goodfellow (daughters of family friend David Goodfellow), Courtney Corbett, Nicholas and Lia Algerio, Jennifer Raimer Giannino and Jill Raimer, as well as 3 great grandchildren Annabel, Juliet, and Avalyn.

A friend to all, Eddie was a loving family man leaving behind a legacy of smiles, a good laugh and a kind demeanor. He will be sorely missed by those who loved him near and far. The greatest thank you to all of the Berkshire Visiting Nurse Association nurses, most specifically Lisa Cerveira, RN and all of the nurses on 4 East Progressive Care at Berkshire Medical Center for taking the greatest care of our Papa.

“ We watched in tears from Florida; and also laughed along with you all. Beautiful job Courtney. And Marianne, you were outstanding. Wish we could have been there, but know that our prayers are with you all during this difficult time. Ed's probably taking batting practice with "The Mick" right now. There is life in heaven after leaving earth. We love you all. Brother James & Nanc-

“ Dear Marianne,

My sympathy for the loss of your Dad. Whenever I think of you, Marianne, from high school, I see this beautiful and very nice young lady who has the most wonderful smile.

Hope you and yours are well and still sharing that warm and caring smile!

Sincerely Mrs. Kathleen Powell

“ Dear Frank and Susan,

Sorry to hear of your loss. I did not know Mr. Algerio, but I know you two and you have always been special and memorable to me. Hope you can take comfort in your faith, family and friends.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Kathleen Powell
