

Dr. George Thomas Farley

May 6, 1926 - November 16, 2019

George Thomas Farley, Jr., 93, entered into eternal life on November 16, 2019, surrounded by his loving family. Born in Pittsfield on May 6, 1926 at St. Luke's Hospital to George T. Farley and Ellen Gore, "Tom" attended St. Joseph schools from first grade until his graduation in 1943. He immediately joined the US Navy and trained as a pilot. Returning after the end of WWII, Tom attended The College of the Holy Cross and graduated in 1949.

He married Margaret Therese Nesbit in 1951 with whom he raised 10 children until a long illness took her from them. A single dad to a large clan, he led by example with a quiet, steadfast determination expecting each to do their best and to "work until the work is done."

He started his long career as an educator for the Pittsfield Public Schools as a substitute and then as a classroom teacher at Central Junior High School. He was one of the first teachers at the newly built North Junior High and then went to Pomeroy Elementary School. In 1959, he was appointed principal at Briggs School where among many accomplishments, he was recognized by the Massachusetts Teachers Association for establishing the first library in an elementary school. In 1966 he took a two year sabbatical when he and Marge moved their 9 children to Greenfield, MA so that he could complete his Doctoral Studies in Educational Administration and Research at the University of Massachusetts. Returning to Pittsfield in 1968, with now ten children, Dr. Farley was appointed principal at Hibbard Elementary School and later at Highland Elementary School where he was a beloved leader to generations of children and their families. He was always looking for ways to develop a sense of family and the love of learning. He embraced innovation, exemplified by his being the first principal in Pittsfield to introduce computers into elementary classrooms.

Like most educators during this era, he worked second and summer jobs to provide for his family, including working for the highway department, the Parks Department and Camp Karu, refereeing youth sports and preparing the next generation of teachers at the then North Adams State College. He spent hours outdoors growing flowers and a vast garden filled with an array of vegetables to be eaten freshly picked as well as to be stored for the winter months.

Tom was a star athlete with a special talent for batting and stealing bases. He took joy in doing backflips off the diving board even into his seventies and golfing into his late eighties. His keen sense of strategy, however, shone brightest at the contract bridge table. Together with Chuck Bordeau, his partner of 63 years, they achieved the rank of Silver Life Master.

Tom married Carolyn M. Sitzman in August of 1984. The couple formed a loving 35 year partnership lasting into a long retirement, caring for each other and enjoying the life events of their children, 31 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

Besides his wife, he is survived by his children and grandchildren, Tommy and Gerri (Ryan, Bridie, Chaela, Colin and Shea) Mary Kay and Steve (Katie and Jessica) Colleen and Jeff (Nicholas and Courtney) Shaun and Mary (Branden, Jennie and Amelia) Kevin (Matthew, Patrick, Tim and Elizabeth) David and Maria (Dylan, Kyle, Jack and Jared) Dan and Anita (Colleen and Brenna) Tricia and Dan (Enrique, Maggie and Joe) Peter and Deborah (PJ, Eliza, Bridget and Gretchen) and Meg (London and Breena). He is also survived by his numerous nieces and nephews, grand-spouses, his great grandchildren Alexis, Gia, Eli, and Claudia, and is currently blessed with more to come.

Tom was the quintessential scholar and gentleman. He found every opportunity to learn something new and put others before himself. His legacy will live on in all who knew and loved him.

“ I want to express my sadness to hear that Dr. Farley has passed on. I worked as secretary for him at Briggs School and took his great bridge lessons after I retired and enjoyed playing against him in Wmstown. He also taught Peter & Paul, my sons, at Pomeroy School and they remember him as a great teacher.

He always greeted me with a smile - a gentle man and a gentleman.

My sympathy to his family,

“ Around 1961 I entered second grade at the best elementary school in Pittsfield, Briggs. I got in trouble for what was called talking back to the teacher. I only did it when I had to set the teacher straight. no doubt annoying and disrespectful coming from a third grader. haha I spent many recesses in Mr. Farley's office. I don't remember a lot, but I remember how handsome he was and how NICE he was. He always smiled or chuckled when I told him why I got sent to the office. He never made me feel like I was. "Bad girl". I actually liked spending recess in his office while he did paper work as I was looking down, out the window, on all the jump-ropers, kick ballers and tag players, because he was so kind to me. RIP Mr. Farley

I'm so sorry for his death but Dr Farley will live in the hearts and minds of so many children that he educated, like me. God bless Dr Farley. To my classmate Dan and his siblings your Dad was so special and blessings to you all at this sad time.

“ I was a Wendell Ave waif

Welcomed Loved Wanted

In that crazy mixed up loving dinner table of 13, there was always always always an extra plate for #14 (15 and 16 too probably)

Sometimes, albeit rarely, I even got the question right and got an extra cookie for dessert.

Steady as she goes, rock solid of a man, mindful and present to others he had a marvelous and memorable laugh

I felt as at home there on Wendell as I did in my own house.

Perhaps even more so.

Even when being tortured mercilessly by Danny, I had both Nana and her son looking out for me. :)

I talked to Uncle Tommy last Tuesday and he told me that on Wendell Ave I once had a terrible terrible toothache and he felt so badly that he couldn't comfort or help me. He reminded me also of how he filmed my 1st steps. Here; a man with a loving wife and 10 children, their spouses, and their children, and their children's children and he remembered my pain, and my beginings. My special time @ his home.

I loved him very much and will miss him dearly. I love his children too, each and every one who are all blessed by his remarkable gifts.
