“ Aunt Sandy, Susan, and Jamie I am truly sorry for your loss. The man I called Uncle Jim was a great man who brought joy and laughter to many people. I remember when I was a kid he would call our house. My mom or dad would answer and not know who was on the other end of the phone (pre-caller ID.) They would say "Hello" and within seconds they would start laughing. I knew right away that Uncle Jim was calling. He had that sort of effect on people. I remember the fun that we all had when we went camping at Savoy Mountain during the summers. Uncle Jim as a man with a big heart with a strong love for his family.

My family would like to express our condolences to each of you. We are sorry for your loss.

“ My memories of the man that I knew as Uncle Jim all revolve around laughter. When I was a kid I remember when someone would call my house and my mom or dad would say "Hello" and then burst out in laughter. I immediately knew it was Uncle Jim on the other end of the line. When I think of him, I think of laughter. He always teased me and my cousins when we were growing up and it was always in good fun. He never took it too far. He had a big heart too. He was kind and generous. As I got older I came to realize how great it is to have people like Uncle Jim in your life.

My condolences go out to Aunt Sandy, Susan, and Jamie. I am truly sorry for your loss.
