

Mrs. Janet Marie Hagan

February 1, 1939 - May 8, 2020

Janet Marie (Heron) Hagan, 81, of Canaan, NY passed away at home on Friday, May 08, 2020, surrounded by her loving family. Born in Milford, MA on February 01, 1939, the daughter of the late John and Anna Anzivino Heron, she was one of seven siblings. Janet grew up in Hopedale, MA.. Her childhood was filled with many days playing in the park, softball, tennis and was an avid swimmer in the local neighborhood pond, with her siblings as well as her friends Janice, Mary and Patricia. She moved to Canaan, NY in the early 70's with her husband, the late Laurence Hagan, where they successfully owned and operated Hagan's Queechy Lake Inn for 23 years. Janet enjoyed her retirement as an active participant of the community. She loved to read and participated as a member of her book club as well as the church community. She was loved by her neighbors and once referred as a 'Beacon of Light' of the neighborhood. Janet was raised by her first-generation Italian mother who loved to cook. There was always dinner ready for anyone and everyone to gather and enjoy the good times! Janet loved animals. This extended not only to her own cats and dogs but to every bird, squirrel, chipmunk and stray seeming to find her beacon of light, where Janet would then cook up a meal and make sure none would go hungry or homeless.

She was predeceased by her husband of over fifty years, Laurence Hagan. She was also predeceased by her son, Todd and daughter in law Tracey, her siblings, Jack, Barbara, Eleanor and Anne. Janet is survived by her children Brooks (Julie), Mark and Kelly (Christy), siblings Sandra Lombardi (Bernie), David Heron (Peggy) and several nieces and nephews. She will be greatly missed by all.

“ Many wonderful dinners at the Hagan house, Janet was such a gracious host. “What can I get you?” Sweet and welcoming, my dachshunds and I always loved visiting. She went out of her way to take care of my little ones. I am so grateful to have known her. I sure will miss her welcoming smile.
