

Melissa A. Mestre

July 8, 1980 - February 2, 2019

On the weekend of February 1st, Melissa Ann Chaffee Mestre was taken from us prematurely and suddenly. Born in Pittsfield on July 8, 1980, the daughter of June Cooper Chaffee and Ashely G. Chaffee, Sr., she was graduate of Monument Mountain High School.

Melissa had a laugh that was immediately identifiable, and a smile that was infectious. She loved all music and was passionate about it. Her love for music was matched by her love for animals - horses in particular - and her dog Milo.

As a cancer survivor, Melissa was a fighter. She triumphed over Life's challenges, however, her challenges did not define her, as she defined herself by her love for her children and her family. Melissa is survived by her two loving sons, Alex and Jonathan Mestre, her mother June Axt, her brothers Shawn White (Teriah), Ashley Chaffee, Jr. and Christopher (Candy) Chaffee, her beloved boyfriend Matt Wampler, and countless loved ones and extended family. She was predeceased by her father, Ashley G. Chaffee, Sr..

“ I remember Melissa in high school as being a genuine friend. Even through all the social angst of adolescence she remained true to those she cared about. We fell out of touch until her youngest was three months old. She had blossomed through becoming a mother and exuded this air of beautiful confidence. She entrusted me with this tiny little baby, and I just remember being in awe of her. I can hear her laugh now and can't help but smile. Thinking of her family with love.
