“ I am so sorry to hear that Tim died. He was a wonderful man, friendly and so very outgoing (smile). I met Tim and Kevin years ago at Poppy's. I used to go there with my brother and eventually a sister as well--all of us love to dance and so did Tim. Over the years, I'd run into Tim and Kevin occasionally someplace with a band where where we could have a drink or many, talk (if we could hear) and dance.

I admired and wish I had his easy demeanor and gift of gab and joy. Whether you just met Tim or had known him for years, he had a way talking to you as if he'd known you forever. This is something I can do with my forever friends, and with others after I get to know them. I need time to adjust... Tim didn't need time to adjust--he was always already adjusted and making others feel special and cared for by him.

I will truly miss Tim. My condolence to Tim's family, especially to Kevin.

“ My memories of Tim started 40 years ago, when I became best friends with his sister Kim around the age of 11. He was an annoying, big brother and always teasing us girls, but he was still fun to be around. He was cool and funny. He was daring and spoke his mind. Lol He showed me Rick James' Super Freak song! He gave me my first cigarette, which I never really smoked, but kept in my pocket waiting for the best time to smoke it and not get caught by my mother! I felt cool knowing it was there in my pocket, all because of Tim. To say Tim was the "life of the party" was an understatement. He lit up a room with his gregarious laughter, smile, and jokes. Everyone loved him! And, still does. I've had the good fortune to make wonderful memories with Tim through the years at my wedding, on vacation in Puerto Rico, at my home in Montreal, at New Year's Eve parties, at winter cottages, at his family functions. So many memories. He was and always will be a part of my life like a brother. It is very difficult to fathom that he is gone. My heart aches that he is no longer here, and my love goes out to Kevin and all Tim's family and friends. I had hoped once the pandemic eased up, we could meet up with Tim, and Kim and all my friends in the States. Unfortunately, with the current situation, I'm terribly sorry I cannot be there to mourn and comfort you in person and celebrate the life of our good friend, Timothy Vallee. Please know I am with you in spirit. You are all in my heart. Anne (Bizzarro) Misztal
