“ So sorry for your loss. Adelia was my favorite patient. She would always reminisce about her family and travels. She always had a smile.

“ My deepest condolences to Barbara and Maryann. I've been looking for you all for years now, but people move around and it's hard to stay in touch. Your mother's passing evokes so many memories, ranging from watching Howdy Doody on your television when we lived on Sadler Avenue to your mother's amazinly delicious gnocchi. I've never had better, and every time I have it or make it--using her recipe, of course--I think of her.

I don't get to Pittsfield very often now, but I'd love to see you.
Maryann, does anyone call you "Peaches" nowadays?
