“ To Ann's family, I remember Ann fondly as I worked with her at Berkshire Medical Center. She had retired, but came back to work just about the same time that I started working there. I admired her for her work ethics, her energy, her honesty and stamina and also for her no nonsense way of getting the work done. She had me learn how to work in the linen room and when I asked her why she chose me to do so, she replied that I had wings on my feet. I took that as a huge compliment coming from a lady who worked hard and noticed my abilities. You all have my deepest sympathy in your time of loss. Sincerely, Charlotte Avery
