

Mr. Anthony P. Abate

September 28, 1927 - July 21, 2014

Anthony P. Abate 86, passed away peacefully on July 21, 2014. Born in Bristol, RI on September 28, 1927 to Maria and Frank Abate, he graduated from Colt Memorial High School, Bristol RI, in 1945 and enlisted in the U.S. Navy. Mr. Abate served in the Pacific Theater during World War II on landing craft support ships generating smoke for amphibious landings, and in the waning days of the war – served on a mine tender on the Yangtse Sea in China. He later took advantage of the GI Bill, and obtained his B.S. in Electrical Engineering from the University of Rhode Island. During his career he was conferred Masters Degrees in Computer Science (Union College), High Calculus (North Adams State College), and Education (Union College). He married Caroline A. Ferri, of Warren, RI, whom he met while working at US Rubber during college. Tony had a remarkable electrical engineering career that began with Allis Chalmers in Racine, WI, then Sperry Rand in Charlottesville, VA, and completed 29 years with GE, first in Pittsfield, MA then Huntsville, AL, Coco Beach, FL, and finally back to Pittsfield, MA. He worked on designing Servo and Guidance systems for post - WWII submarines, the Gemini and Apollo space programs, and the Trident Missile submarines. Mr. Abate was known to be a humble man and did not discuss his accomplishments. He was most proud of his five children and his grandchildren. He and his wife Carol were avid BSO and Tanglewood enthusiasts and loved to attend concerts throughout the summer. President of his high school class, he enjoyed visiting with high school and college friends at the RI shore. He leaves his wife of 62 years, the former Caroline Ferri, his daughter Stephanie and spouse Suzanne Coffey of Amherst, MA their children, Luke and Mikaela Rioux, Bradford & Mark Coffey and grandchildren Charlotte and Axel Rioux, Sadie and Aria Coffey. Daughter Paula Abate and spouse Frank Virzi of Holden MA their children Margaret and Sam Virzi, Son Anthony Abate II and wife Deborah Oakes-Abate of Burlington, CT and their children Nicholas and Patrick Abate, a daughter Joanne Abate and spouse Tom Moffatt of Yarmouth, ME and their children Hannah, Will and Emma Moffatt, a son Thomas Abate and wife Helen Wong of Newton MA and their son Christian Abate-Wong. Anthony also leaves Beth Butrymowicz Horgan and her husband Dr. William Horgan of Grafton, MA and their son Ben whom he considered another daughter and family of his own. His family is grateful for the care he received from Porchlight Home Care and VNA, and the wonderful staff at Kimball Farms in Lenox.
