

Anthony Brian Astore

August 15, 1985 - June 16, 2023

Anthony Brian Astore, of Pittsfield, MA, passed away unexpectedly on Friday, June 16, 2023, just months shy of his 38th birthday. Born in Pittsfield MA, on August 15, 1985, he was the son of Timothy Astore Sr. And Elizabeth Squires.

Tony was an independent freelance contractor who took great pride in his work. On the weekends he also took pride in running a local bouncy house business.

Tony's ultimate joy was the birth of his three children. Becoming a father immediately brought out his softer side—anything from playing dress up and tea parties, to fighting monsters under the bed, the endless forts, movie nights, walks in nature smelling flowers, collecting rocks and skipping stones, playing tag and teaching them how to ride their bikes! Tony took great pride in each one of his children's accomplishments. His greatest gift was watching them grow alongside him.

Besides spending time with his children, family and an endless amount of friends whom he loved, Tony enjoyed and took great pride in teaching himself how to play the guitar like his brother, Tim, learning his own music and sharing that achievement with those around him. Expressing himself through music was always something that brought him peace.

Tony will be remembered by his genuine heart, kind personality and his contagious laughter that always spread to everyone around him,

Besides his parents, he is survived by his lifelong companion Amber Dargi and their three children, Adrian, Syncerity, and Lyrenzo Astore. He leaves his sisters, Jessica Astore and Desire Dufur, his nieces, Audriah Astore and Lydiah Turner, as well as his beloved aunts, uncles and many other cherished friends and relatives.

Tony was predeceased by his brother, Timothy Astore, Jr..

“ The Dragonfly Story

“In the bottom of an old pond lived some grubs who could not understand why none of their group ever came back after crawling up the stems of the lilies to the top of the water. They promised each other that the next one who was called to make the upward climb would return and tell what happened to him. Soon one of them felt an urgent impulse to seek the surface; he rested himself on the top of a lily pad and went through a glorious transformation, which made him a dragonfly with beautiful wings. In vain he tried to keep his promise. Flying back and forth over the pond, he peered down at his friends below. Then he realized that even if they could see him they would not recognize such a radiant creature as one of their number.

The fact that we cannot see our friends or communicate with them after the transformation, which we call death, is no proof that they cease to exist.”
