“ *Josie and Steven & Family,
Please accept out prayers and sympathy in the loss of your father. Your mom was our bookkeeper at Hagyard's Pharmacy in Lenox. It was always a pleasure to see both of them. They loved talking about the Soapbox Derby and both of you.. We know you have fond memories of both of them that will always be in your hearts. We do. I think of Jean every Christmas when I hang the knit stockings she made for our children when they were young. What a joyful reunion for both of them. You remain in our prayers.*
