

Ms. Arline P. Newton

December 14, 1919 - January 22, 2025

Mrs. Arline P. Newton, of Pittsfield, formerly of Bristol, CT, passed peacefully in her sleep on Wednesday, January 22, 2025, just one month after celebrating her 105th anniversary!

Born in Derby, VT, she was the daughter of the late Edgar and Gabrielle Fournier Phoenix.

Arline is survived by her daughter, Sollena K. Morginn, as well as her granddaughter, Meredith O'Toole. She also leaves her two great grandchildren, Bria Kelly and Ryan O'Toole, both of whom she adored.

Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her granddaughter, Marci Wentland, and her deceased brother, Roland Phoenix, Lucian Phoenix, Roger Phoenix and Fernand Phoenix.

For the majority of her career, Arline was employed by General Motors, where she worked as a factory inspector, and retired after nearly 40 years of dedicated service.

Among many things, she enjoyed a good game of bingo, or a round or two of cards. In her later years, she loved coloring very intricate pictures. Arline loved to bowl and was a 23-year member of the Bristol Ten Pins.

Funeral services:

Funeral services for Mrs. Arline P. Newton will be Tuesday, February 11, 2025, with a Liturgy of Christian Burial at 1pm at St. Gregory the Great, 235 Maltby Street, Bristol, CT 06010.
