

Mrs. Barbara M. Keeler

November 12, 1931 - December 5, 2015

Eastham, MA - Barbara M. Keeler, 84, of 15 Captain Michaels Road, formally of Pittsfield died Saturday at home surrounded by her loving family.

Born in Queens, NY on November 12, 1931, daughter of Julius and Ethel Lee Fosser, she attended schools in Clarksburg and was a 1950 graduate of Drury High School in North Adams. She received her nursing degree from Henry W. Bishop Memorial School of Nursing in Pittsfield in 1953. She worked as a registered nurse for the majority of her career at Berkshire Medical Center in Pittsfield.

She was a member of the Morningside Baptist Church where she was a Sunday school teacher for many years, a Girl Scout leader and belonged to the Rachel Circle.

She was predeceased by her husband Malcolm E. Keeler in 2003 with whom she was married for 49 years and a brother, Philip J. Fosser in 2011.

She will be sadly missed and lovingly remembered by her children and their families: Marcia L. Kupiec, her husband Mark and sons Keith and Steven of Methuen; Kathy Barrett Zeoli, her husband Raymond and son Jeffrey of Seal Beach, CA; Priscilla Sullivan, her husband John and children Georgia, Wesley, and Daniel of Lynnfield; David M. Keeler, his wife Alexis and children Matthew, Joseph and Elizabeth of Eastham along with several nieces and nephews.

“ We are very sorry to hear of Barbara Keeler’s passing. For many years we rented vacation homes to the Keeler family and always looked forward to seeing and visiting with Mal. We are happy that David and Alexis are starting their roots on Cape Cod. Hope your wonderful memories of your Mother help to sustain you at this difficult time.
