“ dear miller/montrose families and friends of bobbie, my deepest condolences for bobbie, someone who lit up a place, especially when music was happening, and jazz swinging everywhere.

i knew bobbie from her taking tap dance from my uncle ray hart, an internationally known tap artist who retired and taught throughout the berkshires from the 19030s-1960s she was an avid jazz fan and attended many of my and others' concerts.

her dad, frank miller, was a wonderful saxophone and clarinet artist who played with a number of jazz greats, and also for berkshire area and regional club and dance events, which is where i knew and played with him on piano and later on drum set.

bobbie, sending good vibes and bright moments to you, and our love, in spirit and music, forever swinging!!!
