

Mr. Benjamin Asmah

October 11, 1947 - November 24, 2013

Mr. Benjamin Asmah, 66, of 50 Clinton Ave, passed away peacefully on Sunday, November 24, 2013, at Berkshire Medical Center after a short fight against Parkinson disease. Born in Accra, Ghana on October 11, 1947 the son of David Asmah and Abena Yeboah, he was a 1966 graduate of Dunkwa Offinso High School.

Mr. Asmah worked for many years as a Ship maintenance operator for the State Fishing Co-operation of Ghana and later for Geolis Cable Company in Onitsha Nigeria, before retiring in 2010. Ben enjoyed taking walks, listening to music and playing with his grand kids. His greatest joy was spending time with his family.

Benjamin is survived by his two sons Frederick Asmah-Appo and Michael Kotey Neequaye, and four grand-children

Funeral Notice:

Funeral Services for Mr. Benjamin Asmah will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Asmah's family, care of the Dwyer Funeral Home, 776 North St., Pittsfield MA 01201, in his memory.