

Mr. Brian "John" Miller

March 11, 1932 - August 28, 2016

Mr. Brian "John" Miller, 84, of Lenox passed away on Sunday, August 28, 2016 at Berkshire Medical Center. Born in Poole, England on March 11, 1932 the son of Betty Palmer, he received a scholarship and graduated from the acclaimed Poole Grammar School. He went on to receive a Bachelor's degree. While in school Brian was a star swimmer and cricket player.

He spent two years serving in the British Royal Air Force.

Brian was a Pharmaceutical Business Executive working for Warner Lambert and Rorer. He traveled with work and lived in England, Belgium and Ireland before moving to the United States. He lived in New Jersey and Pennsylvania before leaving Warner Lambert and Rorer. He then moved to Colorado in 1987 where he became President and CEO of BioStar in Boulder, CO. He and his wife also owned and operated Clary Salon, a full service beauty salon. He retired and moved to Pittsfield in 1999.

Brian will be remembered as a kind and generous person and a true gentleman by all who knew him.

He leaves his wife, the former Rosaleen O' Sullivan, whom he married on June 1, 1953. He is also survived by his daughter Catherine Demick and her husband Paul of Lanesborough. He was predeceased by a son, Patrick Miller. The family would like to thank the LEP staff of Kimball Farms for the kind, generous and professional care they gave Brian. They treated his as a member of their own family. They would also like to thank the Doctors and Nurses on 2 South at BMC for their care and compassion.

Funeral Notice:

Funeral services for Mr. Brian “John” Miller will be private lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Patrick J. Miller Fund, through the Brien Center, care of the Dwyer Funeral Home, 776 North St., Pittsfield MA, in his memory. DONATIONS CANNOT BE MADE ONLINE, but may be made through the Dwyer Funeral Home.