

Mr. C. Thomas Seddon, Jr.

May 28, 1940 - November 8, 2021

Mr. C. Thomas Seddon Jr., 81, of Pittsfield, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, November 8, 2021 in San Diego, CA. He was visiting family with his daughter and grandson. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on May 28, 1940, the son of the late Charles and Lena Christopher Seddon, Tom graduated from Pittsfield High School.

He worked as a plastic mold engineer for Marland Mold, where he retired after more than forty years of dedicated service. He also taught night courses at Berkshire Community College.

Throughout his life, Tom enjoyed weight lifting, cycling, and walking. He spent his free time at home gardening, reading, and spending time with his family. Later in life, Tom developed an affinity for rock collecting. Tom will be remembered for his sense of humor and dry wit, his intelligence and thoughtfulness, his patience, and his generosity.

Tom was predeceased by his beloved wife of 57 years, the former Norma Anderson, whom he married on October 22, 1961. Norma passed away on January 17, 2018. He was predeceased by his sister, Joan McNulty. He is survived by two daughters - Donna McBurney of Pittsfield, MA (Moirra Brophy) and Darla Pelletier of Phoenix, AZ (Dale Pelletier); five grandchildren - Erika Bonnevie (Cameron Wiley), Frank Bonnevie (Kate Fletcher Bonnevie), Elijah McBurney, Tom and Elissa Pelletier; and three great-grandchildren (Anderson, Frank, and Allison). Tom will be missed by many.
