“ So sad to hear of Carol's passing. I will always remember her terrific sense of humor. She & I spent many years singing in Sweet Adelines and rooming together on our travels with the group. One year we attended a regional competition which was held in Philadelphia. I will never forget Carol dancing with one of the Mummies who was all decked out in a feathery costume, at 2 in the morning. We sang all night with different groups from all over the country & had ham & cheese grinders for breakfast at 5am.

When she was around, there was constant laughter. When I remember her it won't be with sadness. I loved her as a dear friend for her strong values, love of children and life.

My sincere sympathy to all her family, know she will be missed very much, but rest assured, we all know where she is now. Love to you all, Sandi Stanley
