

Carol P. Ferraro

September 3, 1946 - November 28, 2015

Carol Patricia Ferraro passed away on the evening of Saturday November 28, 2015 at Berkshire Medical Center after a two-year battle with cancer. Carol was surrounded and comforted by family and friends during the time of her passing; she was 69 years old. Carol was born in Brooklyn, NY on September 3, 1946 to Bertha and Charles S. Tiblom. She was a 1964 graduate of Pittsfield High School and a 1967 graduate of Cooley Dickinson Hospital School of Nursing. Shortly after graduation from nursing school Carol joined Berkshire Medical Center where she went on to dedicate 47 years of her life as a registered nurse and IV therapist. As an IV therapist Carol had become known for her involvement with the infusion room and was recognized for her compassion and skill in her field. Everyone knew her as an exceptionally kind, loving and selfless woman which led to her nomination and selection for Berkshire Medical Center's prestigious Clinical Excellence Award in 2012. Carol is remembered by her husband of 35 years, Joseph Ferraro of Pittsfield, MA; her son Bryan and his fiancé Arielle of Rochester, NY; her step-son Anthony along with grandchildren Samantha and Justin of Pittsfield, MA; brother Charlie Tiblom of St. Petersburg, FL; along with family and friends. Her life is an example of how just one person can touch so many lives.
