

Caroline Ferri Abate

December 2, 1926 - January 3, 2017

Caroline Ferri Abate died at home January 3, 2017 surrounded by her family. Born in Warren, RI to Mary and Thomas Ferri, she was one of fourteen children. Four brothers and four sisters survive her.

Caroline attended Warren High School in Warren, RI, leaving school before graduating to help support her family during WWII. At the age of 66, once her five children graduated from college, Caroline completed her studies and received her high school diploma from the Pittsfield Schools June, 1992.

Caroline was employed by the City of Pittsfield in 1970 working as a cafeteria aide and cashier at Taconic High School and later at Pittsfield High School retiring in 1990.

Caroline was an active volunteer at Richmond Elementary School.

Caroline was married to her husband Anthony for 62 years who pre-deceased her in July, 2014. Theirs was a long and loving marriage. The couple enjoyed trips to Italy, the simple pleasures of their country home, many enjoyable evenings at Tanglewood and summers with her children and grandchildren on Martha's Vineyard.

Caroline was the reason her husband was able to have a distinguished career as an engineer. She relocated her young family from Milwaukee, WI to Charlottesville, VA to Pittsfield, MA to Huntsville, AL to Coco Beach, FL and finally to Richmond, MA as her husband's career advanced.

Caroline leaves a daughter, Stephanie Abate and her spouse, Suzanne Coffey of Amherst, MA and their children, Luke Rioux and his wife, Cary

Phoenix and their children, Charlotte and Axel, daughter Mikaela Rioux, son Bradford Coffey and his wife Leslie and their daughters, Sadie, Aria and Kylie, and son Mark Coffey and his wife Jamie; daughter Paula Abate and her husband Frank Virzi of Holden, MA and their children, Margaret and her husband, Lowell Day; and son Samuel Virzi and his fiancée Sarah Levine; a son Anthony P. Abate II and his wife Deborah Oakes of Cromwell, CT and son, Nicholas Abate and his fiancée Brittany Wells and son Patrick Abate; a daughter, Joanne Abate and her husband Thomas Moffatt of Yarmouth, ME and their children, Hannah, Thomas William and Emma Moffatt; and son Thomas Abate and his wife Helen Wong of Newton, MA and their son Christian Abate-Wong. Caroline also leaves the daughter of her heart Beth Butrymowicz Horgan and her husband Dr. William Horgan and their son Ben. The Abate family would like to thank Dawn Huttoe who was Caroline and the family's devoted caregiver since 2016. She was Caroline's advocate and showed great compassion and poise during these last difficult months. Caroline was a devoted mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She would tell her children they were her diamonds. Caroline made sure all her children could swim and ski, teaching them to ride a bike, drive a stick, write a thank you note, tip well and never pass a salvation kettle without dropping a coin and most importantly help others in need.

“ My Aunt Carol was also my Godmother. She was a lovely, kind and selfless person. I remember her ironing my wedding gown the night before the wedding that she had traveled many miles to attend. Aunt Carol also often remembered me at Christmas and I regret not keeping in touch.

Love and peace to all her family,

Donna Howell (her sister Mary's younger daughter)

“ Aunt Carol was so sweet. She was very caring and my heart aches for my 5 cousins and their children. When I lived in New York, far from my parents in California, one year Aunt Carol invited me over for a few days to enjoy Thanksgiving with her, Uncle Tony and my cousins. She was so good to me and I remember her taking me shopping. I don't know how I remember the green sweater I bought when we were out, but I do. I also remember a gift she sent one year that I loved! It was a from Eddie Bauer and was a waffle mix with syrup in a cute mini tote. She sent it b/c she remembered how I loved to cook. I also have fond memories of her California visits and the wonderful stories my Father would tell of the times he spent staying with the family in his youth.

She will be sadly missed and I wish I could be there to celebrate her life. Lucky for her she has so many wonderful family members and pets awaiting her arrival in heaven including her Mother, Father, brothers Angelo, Louie & Tony and sisters Vera and her infant sister.

*Rest in Peace.
Lovingly,
Your Niece April S. Ferri*
