“ Carolyn! I was one of the last to speak with her, while she was in the hospital, and --through cyber investigation--one of the last to hear of her all too sudden death. It is a shock to my heart!

I would have come from down east Maine to the service, if I had only known.

We were very good friends, going back to 1992, when we did The Forum together. The last 2 years were extremely hard for her; we kept in constant contact--keeping her spirit alive, her positive thoughts in tact. She was amazingly resilient and strong spirited, in part due to her love for Christopher.

Carolyn: kind, soft, open, concerned, nurturing, spiritual, willing, easy to laugh, ready to cry; in another era, fun-loving, kicking up her heels, on to the next thing. She had great legs!

This is a difficult loss.

*Always in my heart, all ways,
deanie*

“ Carolyn and I shared the love of dance together many years ago. I taught adult tap dance, childrens' classes & aerobics for this lovely lady at her Saltare studio above the Highland restaurant. She loved my little Christopher and soon had her own. You don't know and won't remember your visits to my house as an infant whom a rocked in my arms as we shared the joy of motherhood. I was shocked when I opened the Eagle and read the oh so sad news. My deepest sympathy. As someone said earlier "She now dances with the angels" God bless. From Becky Knox
