

Ms. Christina Marie Elizabeth Stevens

September 9, 1971 - April 24, 2023

Ms. Christina Marie Elizabeth Stevens, 51, of Chicago, IL, passed away on Monday, April 24, 2023, after a courageous battle with cancer. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on September 9, 1971, the daughter of Roy and Harriet Stolberg Stevens, she graduated from Taconic High School, and Berkshire Community College. Christina went on to earn a bachelor's degree from Worcester State College, and later, her Masters in Elementary Education from Roosevelt University in Chicago.

Christina was an elementary school teacher for 22 years, the last 15 of which were spent teaching third grade at Alain Locke Charter Academy in Chicago, from which she retired in June of 2022.

Among many things, Christina had a passion for traveling. She also enjoyed reading, cooking, and exercising. Chris's family was of utmost importance to her, and she loved any opportunity she had to spend time by their side.

Christina is survived by her parents, Roy and Harriet Stevens, as well as her brother Michael Stevens, and sister-in-law, Nancy Stevens. She leaves behind her niece and nephew, Joshua-David and Erica Stevens, both of whom held a special place in her heart. Christina is survived by her aunts, Kathleen Boulais, Eloise Stone (Dale), and Suzanne Anderson; uncles, James Stolberg (Diane) and Kenneth Stolberg, her life-long best friend and "sister", Leigh

Cronin (Joe), as well as many cousins and extended family.

She was predeceased by her brother, David E. Stevens, as well as her grandparents, Spencer and Harriet Stolberg, and James and Leah Stevens.
