Mr. Czeslaw "Chester" Chrostowski, 79, of Pittsfield, passed away at home peacefully on Sunday evening. Born in Szawark, Poland on January 3, 1936, he was the son of Stanley and Julia Wrona Chrostowski. He attended schools in Poland where he received his Teaching degree.

Mr. Chrostowski was a grammar school teacher in Poland before coming to the United States to join his family in 1961. He was an avid sports fan and favored the New England Patriots and the Boston Red Sox. He had also been involved in gymnastics at a younger age. One of his greatest joys was spending time with his grandchildren.

He was an active communicant of the former Holy Family Church.

Mr. Chrostowski is survived by his wife, the former Krystyna Prokop, whom he married in 1963 in Brooklyn, NY. He also leaves his three children, Barbara Faulkner and her husband David of North Adams, Margaret Curro and her husband Paul and Mark Chrostowski and his wife Karen all of Pittsfield; a brother, Stanley Chrostowski of Pittsfield and four grandchildren, Kevin Curro, Andrew Curro, Michael Faulkner and Kathryn Faulkner.
