

David Clement

January 17, 1953 - July 15, 2017

PITTSFIELD: David J. Clement, 64, a resident of Pittsfield, passed away Saturday, July 15th as a result of a boating accident on Lake Champlain.

Born in Pittsfield, January 17, 1953, the son of Harold J. and Clarice Bromley Clement, he was a 1971 graduate of Lenox High School. Continuing his education, he attended Berkshire Community College.

He was employed for over 20 years at E.W. Newton and Son Inc. as an equipment operator. Later he was employed by Wahconah Welding as a Crane Operator from where he retired two years ago. Most recently he was employed part time at Advanced Machine and Tool Inc.

Dave was an avid boater who enjoyed being with all his friends at point Bay Marina, and fishing on Lake Champlain with his son Trevor. He also enjoyed gardening and spending time with family and friends. His greatest joy was teaching his granddaughter Charlie how to fish. Dave also loved to spend time out west in Idaho visiting his son Justin.

He and his wife, the former Gail Newton were married June 4, 1976 at Trinity Church in Lenox.

Besides his wife and mother, he leaves his two sons, Trevor & Melissa clement of Lenox Dale, and Justin Clement of Driggs, ID, a granddaughter, Charlie Clement, and his close friend and neighbor, Taylor Blake, whom he considered his daughter.

“ Dear Gail and family, I'm holding you all in my prayers. Dave was such a nice man. I remember how his eyes glistened Gail when he spoke of you. One particular memory was when he stopped by to pick up a special gift for you. He was so proud and filled with love of all that you had accomplished. Prayers of strength, comfort an peace to you all. Deb Flynn xox “ Trevor and Gail , I am so sorry for your loss. Dave was such a good fellow ,I loved to see him on the dock or the landing. He truly loved to spend time fishing with his family.My last time spent with Dave we talked about fixing the overheating problem, then to how Charlie reacted to her first fish on. I will miss Dave ,when we last met his words first were Hi it sure is good to see a friendly face, and he was tired from working on your boat but he was ready to talk about fishing with His family. I will miss Dave truly a great guy , I am sorry to see him go.

So sorry for your loss, sincerely,John Eisenhardt Jr
