

Deacon Joseph Troiano

July 19, 1992 - August 22, 2022

It is with great sadness that John Troiano and Denise Galvagni announce the passing of their son,

Deacon Joseph Troiano, on August 22, 2022, shortly after celebrating his 30th birthday. Deacon was born on July 19, 1992.

Deacon attended local Pittsfield Schools and most recently, Deacon was employed by Berkshire Medical Center, where he worked in their maintenance department. Deacon was skilled in many areas and worked for his father's masonry business learning the techniques of the trade.

Deacon enjoyed exploring in the woods, his love of which began at Canoe Meadows at a young age. Among many things, he also enjoyed fishing, camping, video games, family vacations to the ocean and spending time with his daughter. Deacon will be remembered as the person who would always be ready and willing to help his family when it came to moving, setting up furniture or putting complicated things together.

Besides his parents, Deacon leaves behind his brother, Anthony Maffuccio and his beautiful daughter Lila and Bria Winters, mother to Lila. He will be greatly missed by his Aunts and Uncles, Joseph Troiano, Cathy Anderson, Thomas Troiano, Patricia Boyle, Pamela Racheilie, and Danielle Galvagni as well as his cousins, Kristie, Eric, Lindsey, Christopher, Mathew, Adam, Daniel, Samantha, Emily, Megan, Cody and Addison. Deacon also leaves behind many friends he made in his attempts with recovery.

Deacon was predeceased by his Grandparents, Joseph and Norma Troiano, Eugene Galvagni, Roberta Turner and his Aunt, Marryann Girard.
