

Mrs. Deanna Esposito

February 28, 1943 - January 18, 2026

Mrs. Deanna Esposito, of Dalton, passed away on Sunday, January 18, 2026, just one month shy of celebrating her 83rd birthday. Deanna was born on February 28, 1943, in Bronx, NY, and would later make her home in the Berkshires.

While Deanna worked as a hairdresser, all who knew her understood that she was never solely defined by her career, but rather the relationships she made along the way.

Always her top priority, Deanna's family was of utmost importance to her. She married her childhood sweetheart, Deacon Bob Esposito, on August 8, 1964, and together they built a life filled with warmth, happiness, love—and many children! In addition to Deacon Bob, Deanna leaves behind her children: Kristin Ferrarin (Ray), Heather King (Jon), Angel Chaffee, Danielle Lummus (JF), Damian Esposito (Kim), and Justin Esposito (Nikki). She is also survived by 21 grandchildren, and 14 great grandchildren, all of whom she adored.

She was predeceased by two of her children, Brian Gatten Esposito, and Robert Esposito Jr. (Jo-Ellen).

Though Deanna will be sorely missed, the legacy she left—one of warmth, strength, family, and love—will forever be carried by all of those who were blessed to have known her.

“ We have many wonderful memories of Deanna. We spent much time together and she felt like a sister to us. Lots of trips to the Holyoke Mall to buy Christmas presents for the children, and shopping for clothes was one of our favorite things to do. We're so sad that we lost you and we want you to know that you were loved.
