

Mrs. Duk Soon Bromback

November 30, 1937 - November 18, 2024

Mrs. Duk Soon Bromback, of Pittsfield, passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones on Monday, November 18, 2024, just two weeks shy of her 87th birthday. She grew up in South Korea and earned her nursing degree. She met her future husband Jerome, who was serving in the United States Army at the time. They were married on March 16, 1961 in Seoul, Korea.

Upon returning to Pittsfield, Duk Soon and Jerome moved back to the homestead on Pecks Road where they raised their five children. They took pride in their home life, where memories were made such as ice skating and fishing at Onota Lake.

Her children were very active in many sports and activities that she supported. She strongly believed in education and was very proud that all her children went to college. As they grew older, she decided to become a small business owner, which is something she had always wanted to do. She was a communicant of St. Charles Church.

She was predeceased by her husband, Jerome. She is survived by her children, Joseph Bromback (Wendy), Joann Chalmers (Rob), June Bromback, James Bromback, and Jane Angermeier (David). She also leaves behind 7 dear grandchildren, Courtney, Kayla, Olivia, Daniel, Joshua, Eric, and Ryan.

Funeral Notice:

Funeral services for Mrs. Duk Soon Bromback will be private.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in her memory to St. Charles Church in care of the Dwyer Funeral Home, 776 North St., Pittsfield, MA 01201.

“ *My heart goes out to the Bromback family. I spent many days and nights at their home as a kid, whether bouncing on their trampoline all day or tenting in their yard for nighttime adventures. A lovely family that always made me feel welcome.
May your beautiful Mom rest easy...*
