

Mrs. Edith "Edie" Glosch

February 2, 1938 - December 5, 2022

Mrs. Edith (Edie) L. Glosch, of Lenox, passed away on Monday, December 5, 2022, after a brief illness with her daughter by her side. Born on February 2, 1938, the daughter of the late Clifford and Sylvia Sargent Peck, she graduated from Pittsfield High with the class of 1956.

Edith was employed by the State of Massachusetts, where she worked as a toll collector. It was there she dedicated 21 years until her retirement in 2001.

Among many things, she enjoyed her time teaching Vacation Bible School at the former Immanuel Community Church, crafting and spending time with her family and friends.

Edie was predeceased by her husband Roy Glosch, who passed away on January 3, 2021. Edie was also predeceased by her brothers, Robert and Bruce Peck and her former husbands Robert Benedict and LeRoy Teator.

She is survived by her children, Jean Benedict- Beach, Linda Benedict-Vermilyea, Harold Benedict, John Benedict (Angela Spitia) and Jeri Benedict (Henry Blanchard) eight grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild, many loving nieces and nephews and countless friends that she held so dear.

Funeral Notice:

A memorial service for Edie will be held at a later date at the family home in Pittsfield. In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory can be made to Berkshire Community Action Council Inc.

“ I met Edie when Roy was a Mason and Shriner. Our love of the Beatles immediately made us great friends. She was always a joy to be around. Later I asked her if she'd like to sell for WBRK. She did a great job and was a great salesperson. I will miss her. I loved her. She was a real person.
