

Mr. Ernest "Ernie" R. Lampron, Jr.

September 15, 1932 - October 8, 2020

Mr. Ernest "Ernie" R. Lampron, Jr., 88, of Washington, MA, passed away peacefully on Thursday, October 8, 2020, with his loving wife, Marilyn, by his side. Born in Pittsfield, MA on September 15, 1932, the son of the late Ernest and Florence Gunthner Lampron, he graduated from Lenox High School in 1950.

Ernest was a Korean War veteran. He enlisted in the United States Army in 1953, and proudly served overseas until 1954.

Ernie was an electrician by trade. He first worked for the former Kelly Hardwood, and then for J.H. Maxymillian Inc. up until his retirement.

Among many things, Ernest had a love of antique cars. His family was of utmost importance to him. He savored every moment spent with them, especially when playing around with his grandchildren.

Besides his beloved wife of nearly 57 years, the former Marilyn Webb, whom he married on December 18, 1963, Ernie is survived by his son, Ernest Lampron III (Sue). He leaves behind his dear grandchildren, Ernie IV and Devin, as well as his siblings, Richard Lampron, David Lampron, and Beverly Cahill.

“ Marilyn,

We are so sorry to hear of Ernie's passing. We were hoping to get up to see both of you when the Covid restrictions eased. Your dedication to Ernie during his illness was both admirable and inspiring. You have our deepest sympathies on your loss.

“ Dear Dick and family,

I am so very sorry to learn of your brother's passing. How interesting that his wife's name is also Marilyn. And you and Ernie certainly look like brothers. I am sure you have many fond memories to keep you company. Sending prayers for peace and comfort in the days ahead. Be well. God bless.
