Eugenie "Genie" H. Kennedy of Plymouth, MA, died peacefully at her home on Thursday, February 16, 2017 after a brief illness. Born in Pittsfield MA, she was the daughter of the late Mary Murray Kennedy and Eugene Kennedy from Co. Galway, Ireland.

She always enjoyed spending time with family, especially around the Thanksgiving table. She spent much of her time engaged in political discussions and snuggling with her two dogs, Zach and Zeke. Genie was also a devoted Patriots fan, and was thrilled to get to see them win Super Bowl LI. Besides her niece and nephews, Genie leaves her sister, Patricia Kennedy

“ My dear Genie, I will always recall the visits I had to see you in Marshfield and our gatherings at Uncle Ed's and Uncle Gene's in Pittsfield. It was lovely to have cousins in the states during my summers working in the States back in the late 80's and 90's. Emily and I had a lovely visit with you back in the fall of 2003. You had a beautiful meal prepared for Emily and I when we arrived to your warm and cosy home and what a beautiful gathering that was for us all? Your dogs were so cute and welcoming too. I loved our chats on social issues, education, politics and the woes of the world. You were so interested in politics, american and world issues. How I would love to chat with you now re our current political states? Your opinion would no doubt be enlightening. You were so interested in what was going on on our side of the Atlantic. We have been saddened since we heard you were unwell and devastated on your passing. You are no longer in pain. May you rest in peace in the hands of our Lord dear Genie, lots of love , from your cousin,
Christina, Paul. Stephen and Eoin, Ardrahan, Galway, Ireland.

“ Dear Patty and Genie's family,
Words cannot express how very sorry we are for your loss of Genie. She fought the good fight and is resting now, but we know that doesn't ease your pain yet. Be strong, help each other, and share a happy story. Know that we hurt for you. Love, Laurie and Tom

So sorry or your loss Pat, along the loss of your family. I did not know Genie for that long but long enough to know her sweetness, intelligence and love of family. She was a beautiful woman and soul. I'm sorry that she is gone so soon. Pat, you will will carry forth her loving spirit always with your graciousness and grit. XXOO.

To Patty and Genie's family,
I had the pleasure of getting to know Genie over the past few years while a Board member of the Spyglass Landing Condominium Association in Marshfield. Genie was such a unique individual . . . kind, caring, intelligent, hard working and dedicated to her family, staff at Arbor Management and all of her clients. She spoke lovingly of you, Patty, and was so proud of her family. Little Zach was a frequent and welcome companion at the office.
All of us at Spyglass were deeply saddened to hear of her loss. I will always remember the many conversations we had and appreciated the friendship that we shared.
I am certain that she is now at peace . . . in the loving embrace of Jesus.

I was shocked and saddened by Genies death, on occasion I would go by the office with my check for the condo fee. Just to be able to see her and chat a few minutes. She was absolutely a very fine lady. May our Lord receive her with open arms.
