

Evan K. Shallies

January 17, 1984 - January 28, 2024

Evan Kristian Shallies, 40, of Dalton, MA passed away in the early hours of Sunday, January 28th following a devastating diagnosis of pancreatic cancer.

He is survived by his parents, Steven and Kathy Shallies, also of Dalton and his two beloved cats. He is also survived by his brother Nick (Kristina) and nephew Logan of Pittsfield and sister Kaelyn (Tim) and niece Lilyana of Quincy and many aunts, uncles, and cousins. Evan is pre-deceased by his loving grandparents, Archie and Virginia Mongeon and Sally Shallies, and great-aunt Eleanor Turner.

Evan was a skilled carpenter who truly took pride in his work with impeccable attention to detail. He enjoyed the outdoors, in particular fishing, boating, anything with a motor, barbecuing, and horticulture. Those that genuinely knew Evan would know that he had quite the green thumb.

Evan was enthusiastic about playing darts with his father and really anything else that allowed him and his family to spend quality time together.

Evan remained positive even after faced with the unfortunate news of a terminal diagnosis; often cracking jokes to lighten the mood.

Evan's family would especially like to thank Missy and the team at HospiceCare in the Berkshires for their wonderful care and compassion as well as his loving aunt, Joanne Rosier, who was there to help support Evan and his parents during such a difficult time.
