“ Your family and my family, along with the Beyers had many, many memories made while we're kids. We used to all go camping at the Yellow Lantern in Cortland and many times down to Myrtle Beach. When we weren't camping we were neighborhood friends. Those were the days. Personally I really miss you Mike and Kathy, and certainly send my heartfelt thoughts of sympathy to you and your families. Sadly I hadn't heard of your moms passing, and I regret that. Your dad and mom were so much fun, and all those fun times would not have been the same without them! Unfortunately I will not be able to make the services, so I'll have to be there in spirit. May the day go as smoothly as possible for you both. And if, in time, you would like to reconnect, if even just by phone or email, drop me a note at fsoule@live.com or call 315.559.6952. Sincerely, your childhood friend, Fred Soule
