

Mrs. Georgina C. Cid

September 14, 1930 - November 10, 2023

Georgina Cid, 93, formerly of Waltham, MA, passed away peacefully at Springside Rehabilitation Center on Friday, November 10, 2023. She followed her beloved husband, Rodolfo, who also passed away at 93, on November 11, 2019.

Georgina emigrated from Cuba in 1962 with her husband, Rodolfo, and her eldest daughter, Georgina. They expanded their family in the United States with the birth of their youngest daughter, Laura.

She was a proud citizen of the United States, grateful for all the freedom and opportunity this country offered.

Georgina gratefully gave back to her community as a loyal and productive worker, a good neighbor and friend, and an active member of Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church in Belmont, MA, as well as St. Simon's Episcopal Church in Miami, FL.

A devoted mother, her passion was her family, her husband of 69 years, and her home. She had been a teacher in Cuba, and treasured the memories she had as an educator of young children. She was proud of her accomplishments and valued education greatly—a legacy that she passed on to her children and grandchildren.

Georgina is lovingly survived by her children, Georgina Cid Curtis and Laura Cid Larsen, as well as her grandchildren, Morgan, Kristina, Jack, and Robert. She felt great joy in being a great grandmother to Sawyer, Cora, Aiden, Victor, and Anthony.

Georgina will perpetually be remembered with love and appreciation and will be greatly missed.

Funeral Notice:

In keeping with her wishes, there will be no formal funeral services for Mrs. Georgina Cid.

In lieu of flowers and donations, we ask that you remember Georgina in your thoughts and prayers.

Tribute Wall

DB

“ Georgina and Rudolpho were the best of neighbors and friends to myself and Marie for many years...we miss and Love you so much....Peace and Love to the family...Dominic and Marie

Dominic J Bennett - November 15, 2023 at 04:52 PM