LP

“ My dear mom, you said many times that your friends were gone and no one was left to mourn. I have to tell you that the few people at your funeral gave up enough love for a cast of thousands. How many memories could I share. A life time of enduring love from you. A lifetime of lessons and teachings and love. You are in my heart. Everything I do reminds me of you. You are in me and about me. I will keep you in my life and my heart until, some day it is my time. Go gently into that good night.
