“ From the times I've spent around Holden he was very kind he had away that seemed calm and relaxed but at the same time he was a guy that didn't care much for people who abused privileges. He worked hard and cared for his family, If something wasn't working out he'd try to find a solution or work with you if you had one.

“ I will always remember Holden's smile, that and him riding that Harley in the dead of winter . Coming in the store with frost on his face. Me telling him he was crazy and him telling me it was invigorating. Barb I am so sorry for your loss. Holden was a good person. I will keep you and his family in my prayers.
