“ Although I won't be attending the funeral tomorrow, my heart, thoughts, and prayers will be with you and Aunt Irene. I have so many good memories of her and Uncle Frank. They both also were my godparents and I always appreciated them being there for all the special occasions in my life. I will treasure those memories and them forever. As Carol said, "it's an end of an era" and hopefully, Aunt Irene is together with Uncle Frank, her brother, and her parents as well as my mother and father.
