

Mr. James "Jimmy" Caesar

December 26, 1962 - February 25, 2024

James Caesar, aged 61, passed away on Sunday, February 25, 2024, in Pittsfield, Massachusetts from a long battle with cancer.

Jimmy was born in Pittsfield, Massachusetts, on December 26, 1962, the son of James L. Williamson and Judith Williamson-Catalan. He was raised by his parents, Samuel Caesar and Rhoda Caesar. He grew up in Pittsfield, where he spent many weekends fishing and nurtured a great love for art. Jimmy worked as a construction worker and house painter. He loved to spend time with his family, friends, and loved ones and was a huge Giants fan.

Jimmy will be best remembered for his contagious laughter and never-ending smile.

He was preceded in death by his father, James Williamson; his mother, Judith Williamson-Cahalan; his parents, Samuel Caesar and Rhoda Caesar; and his brother, Samuel Caesar, all of Pittsfield, Massachusetts.

He is survived by his brother, William Williamson, and his wife, Sharon Williamson; his brother, David Williamson; his sister, Catherine Paulino-Williamson; his aunt, Eva Sullivan, and her husband, Dr. Louis Sullivan. Jimmy also leaves behind his nephews, Timothy Williamson, Matthew Williamson, and Anthony Paulino; his nieces, Angelica Paulino, Valerie Paulino, and Lauren Cabral; as well as a host of cousins, great-nieces, and nephews, and his longtime best friend and love, Lisa Wetherell.
