

Mr. James "Jacko" Hayes

January 5, 1954 - August 16, 2020

Mr. James M. "Jacko" Hayes, 66, of Pittsfield, passed away at home on Sunday, August 16, 2020, surrounded by his loving family, following a long, courageous battle with cancer.

Born in Pittsfield on January 5, 1954 to the late Francis and Margaret Collins Hayes, James was a graduate of Taconic High School and spent 40 years working at General Electric in Pittsfield and Schenectady, New York before retiring in 2014.

As a youngster, James attended St. Charles School and served as an altar boy at the church. He delivered newspapers around his neighborhood on Crane Avenue and spent countless hours with his brothers on Oak Hill, camping, fishing, and hunting. A middle child in a large Irish Catholic family—he had six brothers and six sisters—James also learned to cook from his mother and spent many days looking after his younger siblings.

James raised his own family on Melbourne Road in West Pittsfield. He shared 44 wonderful years with his wife, Donna M. Hayes (Renzi), whom he married on August 7, 1976. Together the couple had two daughters, Shalene and Amy, and a son, Michael. At home, James could often be found tending to his backyard vegetable and flower gardens, which included growing garlic and tomatoes, as well as his prized morning glories. He loved to prepare meals for his family, especially his homemade apple pies, jarred pickles, and venison jerky. James also cherished his time in the woods hunting, fishing, and searching for mushrooms.

Mr. Hayes appreciated the company of good friends, including Mike Pero, Angelo Tornicelli, Bobby Lussier, Mark Cetti, Jimmy Hinkley, Ray Bushey, Johnny Tyska, Billy Wendell, Mark Mitchell, Kevin Connors, Tom Watroba, Mike Renzi, and many more. In his down time, he was an avid reader, a prolific crossword puzzle solver, and he enjoyed watching the Red Sox, old Westerns, and Jeopardy.

Some of James' favorite memories included trips to Watkins Glen racetrack; traveling to Ireland where he visited the Cliffs of Moher and the Jameson Distillery; visiting New Mexico to experience the state's Balloon Fiesta and visit Bandelier National Monument; a trip to Alaska alongside his brothers to fish for salmon and halibut; family getaways to Cape Cod and Gloucester; and vacationing as a young man in Trinidad and Tobago with his brother-in-law. In retirement, Mr. Hayes could be found at home surrounded by his loving grandchildren; Kaliegh, Marcus, Gavin, Finias, Sofia, and Madeline. Each held a special place in his heart and will forever miss his resolute guidance and loving nature.

In addition to his surviving immediate family, James leaves behind several brothers and sisters; Margaret B. Percy of Pittsfield, Helen E. Barbiero of Long Island, William L. Hayes of Becket, Mary A. Quinto of Pittsfield, Brigid M. Rufo of Altamont, New York, Robert P. Hayes of East Greenbush, New York, John P. Hayes, Elizabeth M. Flynn, Ann M. Hayes, and Joseph P. Hayes, all of Pittsfield, as well as many nieces, nephews, and cousins. He is predeceased by his brothers, Francis "Chico" Hayes and Patrick P. Hayes.

“ Donna, Shaleen, Michael, Amy and the rest of Jacko's family. Words can't express my feelings of sadness right now. I was shocked when I heard of Jackos passing. He is no longer in pain and he is whole again. We sure did have a lot of fun back in the day. Heaven has received another Angel. I hope he has just a good time up there as he did down here. Jacko was a friend to and he was loved by many. Keep his memory alive in your heart. Jacko is walking hand in hand with the spirit in the sunlight. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Rest in Peace my brother. Life has not ended but just begun. He fought the good fight, a real man's man, working hard, hunting, fishing, cooking, gardening and totally devoted to his family. Big and gruff, he was really a big softy. He knew his faith was what sustained him. We will miss him, but the strong devotion to our Catholic faith given to us by Mama and Papa is the sustenance of this family. Mama and Papa, Pat and Chico and all our family that have gone before us, pray for us and we will pray for you. I love and miss you brother. Brig

“ Rest in Peace, my brother. He joins Papa and Mama, Pat and Chico, not in death, but in life. He knew that, so he could leave this earth with peace of heart and soul. A real man, our brother, who loved and worked his whole life for his family. He carried his cross like a man. We love you brother, pray for us and we will pray for you every day. You are with us always. Brig

“ Donna and family, Bob and I have many great memories from back at the big red house you used to live in. It was always so much fun when we got together. Time moved so fast and we all ended up getting wrapped up in our life that we lost touch with each other. We had been looking forward to meeting up again but again life steps in and Jacko with his health and Bob with his health problems we never really got together. 😞 we will cherish the memories always . Jacko will always be remembered by us with his big smile and the wonderful way he had of making everyone feel welcome. Sending our love and hugs. 💔
