

Mrs. Janice V. Hunt

August 2, 1937 - January 19, 2022

Our much-loved mom and grandma, Janice V. Hunt, is now with her beloved husband, Bobby, in heaven. Born on August 2, 1937, the daughter of the late Wilford and Claire LeMoine Gordon, she was educated in the Pittsfield Public Schools.

Janice's family was of utmost importance to her. She was a dedicated homemaker, making sure that their needs were met with nothing but love and care. In the 70s, Janice's family moved to Bennington, VT, and she opened a uniform store where she worked for many years.

Among many things, she loved playing a round of golf, reading, and cooking. Janice was always up for a cruise vacation with her girlfriends.

Janice was predeceased by her beloved husband of 52 blessed years, Bobby Hunt, whom she married on March 13, 1955. Bobby passed away April 24, 2007. She is survived by her son, James R. Hunt, Jr., and her daughter, Donnalynn Pisani (Ralph). She leaves her three grandchildren, Christine, Jamie, and Tommy, her siblings, Dustin and Carol, as well as many dear nieces and nephews. Besides her husband, Janice was predeceased by her siblings, Glenn, Lester, Douglas, and Lois.

On those hot summer days when your mom use to bring us out some lemonade while we played with your army of Roman solders. Your dad always going off to work at the cleaners. Your sister donnalynn always hanging out with my sister Nancy. Those were the days jimmy, oh and the time we got caught looking at all the Xmas presents in your basement that was connected to my cousins basement where my mom put all the Xmas presents.
