

Jean Snow

December 6, 1940 - December 17, 2018

Jean Snow, 78, of Pittsfield passed away on Monday, December 17, 2018 at Berkshire Medical Center. Born in Great Barrington on December 6, 1940 the daughter of Harvey and Gertrude Porter Snow, she was a graduate of Searles High School.

Jean worked for Hillcrest Educational Center at the Highpoint Campus for many years. She had previously worked as a waitress at several area restaurants including Carnutes Restaurant, the Sugar Bowl and the Salt and Pepper. She had also enjoyed bartending at the VFW.

The joy of Jean's life was her dog Shannon and her many pet cats. She enjoyed playing cards and played in local pitch leagues. She also enjoyed music and attending concerts with her sons. Jean liked visiting museums and spending time with family and friends.

Jean had a fierce loyalty to the New York Yankees and an unending love for Elvis Presley. One of her most memorable and cherished trips was to Graceland.

She is survived by her three sons, Jeff Snow, Kevin Snow and John Bernier all of Pittsfield, as well as her sisters, Joyce Schram and Elaine Miller, her brothers, Ted and Bruce Snow, and her sister-in-law, Cecile Snow. She was predeceased by her brother, Richard Snow and her many beloved cats.
