

Mr. Jeffrey "Jeff" Colbert

December 8, 1966 - November 24, 2020

Mr. Jeffrey "Jeff" Allen Colbert, of Pittsfield, passed away on Tuesday, November 24, 2020, just two weeks short of his 54th birthday. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on December 8, 1966, the son of the late Walter and Irene Morin Colbert, he attended Pittsfield Public Schools.

Jeff's parents owned and operated Irene's Diner in Pittsfield where Jeff first employed as a short order cook. He later ventured into the construction business, ultimately becoming partners with Cim's Home Improvement team for the last 20 years. He had an incredible attention to detail and prided himself on being thorough. A master of his crafts, inclusive of siding, roofing, and carpentry, his work ethic was to be envied.

Jeff was an avid sports fan and watching both the Boston Red Sox as well as the Pittsfield Steelers was one of his favorite pastimes. Playing poker was a favorite of his, so much so that he was entered into a professional tournament in Vegas as of late. Spending time with his children was when Jeff was at his happiest.

Jeff leaves behind his son, Kyle Colbert of Germany and his wife, Ha, as well as his daughter, Kayleigh Colbert of Vermont. He is survived by beloved grandchildren and his brothers, Russell Colbert and Brian Colbert. Jeff will be missed by many close friends whom he considered nothing short of family.

Funeral Notice:

Funeral services for Mr. Jeffrey "Jeff" Allen Colbert will be determined at the discretion of the family.

Tribute Wall

KA

“ My dad was a good person who just sometimes didn't make the right decisions. I know he loved me and Kyle and talked fondly of us so i shall talk fondly of him. He couldn't be there for me always but he tried his hardest when he could. He was going to teach me poker before he passed so i plan to learn poker. ”

Kayleigh - June 04, 2021 at 08:21 AM

JE

“ kyle,Ha and Family. May your Dad find everlasting peace. Love Mommer and Phil ”

jane Emerson - January 16, 2021 at 01:07 PM