

Mrs. Jennifer Saxton

March 5, 1958 - October 20, 2017

Jennifer Saxton, 59, of Washington, MA died peacefully at home Friday, October 20, 2017 in the company of her family, tended gently and kindly by Hospice. Her new journey begins. She was born March 5, 1958 in Hanover, PA, the daughter of Dale and Mardi Schuman Saxton.

Jenn started as a singer, and studied for an advanced degree in operatic performance at Boston University, but catering, cooking, and hospitality became her career. She especially valued the friendships she made while inn keeping at Hampton Terrace and the Village Inn in Lenox, and working at Dakota and the Mill on the Floss restaurants.

Jenn was indefatigable in spirit and optimism, which fostered many happy relationships.

Jenn is survived by her husband John (Goz) Gosselin of Washington; his daughter, Nicole Gosselin of Arcata California; a sister, Katherine Sylvester of Hinsdale, NH; a brother, Matthew Saxton of Alstead, NH; two nieces and a nephew; other loving family, a multitude of caring friends, and Brenda the cat. The family would like to thank the Infusion Center and Hospice doctors, nurses and staff. We will plan a Celebration of Life service in the near future.

“ I write you still in shock upon hearing of the death of Jennifer:

My friend Ron and I met Jennifer not long after she worked at the Village Inn.

One fine day while on our way to Tanglewood, we stumbled upon the inn. It was love at first sight and love at first bite.

Jen served not only us, but the larger family as well. Our family get-togethers were always at the Inn, always graciously hosted by Jen herself.

I look back upon those days with great nostalgia, a time that made our visits to the Inn memorable, a golden era for myself and family, one we will never forget.

Please accept my sincere sympathy upon the occasion of the passing of dear Jennifer.

May I request of you the name and location of the cemetery at which Jennifer is buried so that I may pay my respects to her memory.

In deep sympathy,
