

Mr. Jeremy Mack

December 24, 1983 - March 9, 2020

Mr. Jeremy Mack, 36, of Pittsfield, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, March 9, 2020. Born in Pittsfield, MA on December 24, 1983, the son of Anthony Brindle and Deborah Nykorchuk, he attended Pittsfield Schools, where he was on the Taconic High School wrestling team.

Jeremy worked as a foreman for the Formal Concrete Company, and most recently, Pittsfield Plastics.

Among many things, he enjoyed fishing, cooking, and listening to music. Most important to Jeremy was the time spent with his family. He was a hard-worker, who was nothing but humble, soft-hearted, and loved by all whose path he crossed.

Jeremy is survived by his beloved wife, Madga Mack, whom he married on October 15, 2016, and his parents. He leaves behind his children, Hailey Rose, Nevaeh Ashley, and Elijah William, as well as his step-daughter Sevaeh Bryant. He is also survived by his siblings, Jessica Boyce, Timothy Mack, and Laura Chaffee, as well as Amanda and Oliva Brindle. He leaves behind his grandparents, Patricia A. Smith and Alvah R. Mack. Jeremy was predeceased by his uncle, William "Billy" Mack, as well as his grandfather, Carl R. Smith.

It is the hope of Jeremy's family that through this tragedy any of those struggling with demons of both the past and present will know that there is hope for a brighter future. There is always somebody to listen, somebody to care, and somebody to help. Please reach out to the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at (800) 273-8255.

“ Can we somehow get together and put a scrapbook of memories and pictures together for the kids? Hailey wanted more pictures of her and Jeremy together, and that idea popped in my head. There's a lot of memories I don't necessarily want online. Please call or text me at 3296136 if you have photos or memories or are interested.

He was very special friend to me, the world is a sadder place without him in it.
