“ My brother Jerome was a gentle "giant". I call him that because he was a quiet person but very strong in character. I also say that because if someone said or did something that he thought was not right he was the first one to speak up. He was a hard working person who would not ask for help doing something and when his brother Bernie offered to give him a "hand" fixing up the old homestead on Pecks Rd. he didn't say no. He gave in and the 2 of them enjoyed each others company for many years. I would stop up there every so often with coffee and tell them "it was break time" and we would sit and talk about "the good old days". I have nothing but happy memories of him and I do love and thank him for that.
Sadly missed,

“ He was part of our gang of kids who had the greatest childhood. He was part of my wedding in a Protestant church, but he would have to go to confession for many months .In those days this did not happen. Thank God this has changed. We did everything together with Jack O'Brien, Dick Grower Reno Nadeau, and Dave Miller. and Cosier. We also had great times with Rita, two Betties, Tina and many others who made up the Pecks gang. Jerome was dismayed when I told him I was going into the ministry. We had our own baseball Team - The Miller's North Stars. We were good = in our own minds. He found happiness in his life. It was a great joy to have him as part of my life. I have not seen him in 20 years, but I'll see him again when I join him in his journey.
