

Joseph J. Butterfield

May 22, 1951 - April 4, 2024

Joseph J. Butterfield, of Lanesboro, MA, passed away unexpectedly on April 4, 2024. Born in Danforth, ME, on May 22, 1951, he was the son of the late Joseph and Francine (DeKnop) Butterfield.

Joseph was employed for 30 years for Gillette Shows (his second family), and later on for Gillette Rentals. He was currently employed by Maces Marine, where he was known for his expertise and skills in mechanics.

Joe was a jack of all trades. As his late mother-in-law would say, “Joe was like does, he could do it all.”

He enjoyed fishing, sports, Harley Davidson, NASCAR, dancing, and cribbage, and was a true Dallas Cowboys and Yankees fan.

His true love, however, was being a PaPa to his loving granddaughters, Avianna and Gianna.

Joe is survived by his loving wife of 43 years, Gloria (Battaglia), as well as his daughter, Joelle Walker (Corey), and son, Joseph Butterfield (Malissa Mabie), both of Pittsfield, MA, and Dylan DeFrancisci of FL. He leaves behind his granddaughters, Avianna Walker and Gianna Butterfield, his sister, Colette Downey of FL, and brothers Jeffrey and Woodrow Butterfield of CT, in addition to many nieces and nephews, family and friends.

Joe was predeceased by his brothers, Donald and Bruce Butterfield.

“ My brothers and I are saddened. by the passing of Joe. Our deepest sympathy goes out to Colette who always had a special bond with her brother. Joey and I go way back; we were good friends back in our teens growing up in Windsor /Wilson area of CT. I am forever grateful that Joey introduced me to my childhood sweetheart Ms. Deborah L. Heltmolt, whom I married. We were happily together for four decades until her death in 2008. Who can forget the infamous, Animal House like, food fight at High School. A brawl broke during a spaghetti lunch: LOL what a mess! In recent years Mel and I hooked up with Joe in Daytona and attended several Daytona 500's. Joe was a stand up guy and we are all better for haing known him. Sincerely, Barry W. Cocomo Sr.
