“ To Anne and all the Izzo family,
Connie and I were very sad to hear of Joe's passing. It has been a hard year for all of us in losing those closest to us, whom we dearly loved and who shaped our own lives. . Joe always had a smile and showed his love and caring of family and friends. It was always a pleasure to be around all of you. . He loved his family and baseball and did both proud. He will always be remembered because he was loved and remains in all our hearts and minds. My dad and him are together again and surely talking baseball.
May you find comfort in the good memories and family and friends support and love.
With our sincere condolences to all my cousins and family

“ To the Izzo family,
I am very sad to hear of Joe's passing. He was such a gentle, soft spoken man who cared about people. He was my coach when I played Babe Ruth baseball and I can say that he really knew baseball. He put his heart and soul into coaching! I believe Joe is now up in heaven with his three sons.
