“ I was saddened to read of Josephine's passing. When I would see her at PCCL (my Mom is there) I would always give her a wave and say hello. Sometimes she would respond with a charming smile and a little wave back. That made me feel good and I know she appreciated this little way of knowing she was thought of by others. I want to express my sympathy to you,her family. She will be in my prayers and thoughts as will you.
