

Mrs. Judith Beeler

February 11, 1941 - November 8, 2020

Mrs. Judith Beeler, 79, of Pittsfield, passed away on Sunday, November 8, 2020. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on February 11, 1941, the daughter of the late Ralph and Florence Anderson Holcomb, she graduated from Pittsfield High School.

Judith's family was of utmost importance to her, and she strove to see that their needs were always met with nothing but love and care. Her greatest joy was in building memories surrounded by family and loved ones.

Among many things, Judy enjoyed arts and crafts, especially making masks and drawing. She loved baking, growing African violets, cheering on her favorite horse at the races and listening to Alan Jackson. Judy was a strong resilient woman embracing all challenges brought upon her in all aspects of her life, never giving up or giving in without a fight.

Judith was predeceased by her beloved husband of 42 years, Edgar "Edd" Beeler, whom she married on April 9, 1960. Edd passed away on July 11, 2002. Judy is survived by her children, Kelly Beeler, Charlene Bona, Tammy Proctor, Donna Neaton (Tom) , Kevin Beeler (Donna). She leaves behind her sisters, Beverly Stumpek, Sandra Maloy, and Deborah Toole, as well as 10 dear grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren. Besides her husband, Judith was predeceased by her grandson, Chad Beeler, Sr..

“ I was saddened to read of judys passing. She fought hard since eddy's passing and she is with him now. You will miss her so much. I know where her plot is as it is in the same section as her mom and dads which is right behind my parents spot and mike and my spot is in same row over past the the aisle. You will be in my thoughts through this as I am staying safe from corona and I will visit her gravesite next time I am at the cemetery,where I go often. I am calling our cousin Darlene to update her too. Thoughts and prayers for strength for all the family. Carole Vincent.
