

Mrs. Judith E. Richardson

November 23, 1938 - February 18, 2026

Mrs. Judith Richardson, of Newton, MA, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, February 18, 2026. Born in Pittsfield, MA, on November 23, 1938, daughter of the late Howard and Norma Hamilton Robinson, she graduated from Pittsfield High School with the class of 1956, and later from Secretarial College.

For the majority of her career, Judith worked as an administrative assistant for various companies in the defense industry, including General Electric, Lockheed Martin, and General Dynamics. She retired in 1999 after more than thirty years of service.

Judith was an avid genealogist spending most of her life researching immediate and remote family ties throughout Berkshire County, Massachusetts, and Rensselaer County, New York. For this work she received a letter of recognition from the National Genealogical Society. Among many things, she enjoyed jazz music, knitting, reading and the playing the recorder.

Judith is survived by her son, Noel Richardson and his wife Jayne, as well as her brother Howard Robinson Jr. and his wife Jeanette, and Jean Robinson. She is also survived by several nieces and nephews. She will also be remembered with love by Judie and Angelo Vassallo, Kristen, Victoria, and Alexandra Warren, as well as her dear friends Donald Betit, Karen and John Slaboski, and Walter and Kathy Bethka. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her brothers, David Robinson and Michael Robinson.

Funeral Notice:

Funeral services for Judith were privately held.

For those who wish to do so, donations in her name can be made to Miriam Boyd Parlin Hospice Residence in care of the Dwyer Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

JU

“ Grandma Buttons loved Tori and Lexi and they loved her back She slept over at their apartment on holidays and greeted their mornings with a happy smile.

Judith and I shared a way of thinking and looking at the world. She was fond of saying I was the only one who understood her. I think of her and miss her.

---

Judie - March 22 at 09:50 PM