“ Jojo was my best friend growing up. She was like a sister to me. We did everything together. My teenage years would not have been so memorable if it wasn't for JOJO she taught me how to love myself she didn't care what I looked like that was a huge for me. I have many memories of her and I. The one that sticks out the most is when we were driving around town like we did a lot but it was summer hot as you know what and back then AC no happening we had the windows up we didn't want our hair to get messed up (LOL) well after a few minutes I noticed the heater was on we laughed so hard I had to pull over. We laughed a lot. My daughter was her flower girl. After she moved away we lost touch but we always seem to find each other again. I had the privilege to have known JOJO for over 35 years and I am the blessed one to have had such a beautiful person who I love. I will miss you. I wish that I could have had the chance to see her before God called her home. But I know she is a beautiful angel watching over her family and friends. Your life was so full of love and you will forever live in my heart. Rest now my friend until we meet again. Love Della.
